Children's Ministries

Children of all ages grow in their faith through a variety of programs including Catholic education, Protestant AWANA Bible program, Children's Church and other faith group activities.

Youth Ministries

Middle and High school students deepen their faith at our Catholic and Protestant youth programs held at the Chapel Youth Center.

Airmen Ministries

Airman to Airmen retreats, flightline Bible studies, recreational activities and the Wired Bean area all geared to the interests of Airmen.

Three offices on the flightline also allow Airmen to easy access to Chaplains during the duty day.

Adult Ministries

A variety of small-group Bible studies are offered for men, women, and couples. Programs uniquely designed to strengthen military families and marriages, including marriage retreats, are also available.

Online Ministries

Confidential Counseling

Kadena offers several options for counseling but chaplains are the only resource that is completely confidential.

Under no circumstances will a chaplain disclose any information revealed in confidential counseling without the client's consent.
